

For those who are unable to attend tomorrow's HPX Stakeholders meeting in person, the following webcast and conference call arrangements have been made:

Conference call:

303-571-7777 (Denver metro)
800-805-8686 (outside of Denver)
ID 9481

Please ensure that your phone is on mute once you have connected.

Webcast:

To attend this meeting, you must register first. Please click the following link to see more information, and to register for the meeting:

<https://meetings.webex.com/meetings/j.php?ED=4950112&RG=1>

Once you're registered, you'll receive an email message confirming your registration, and providing you with the information you'll need to join the meeting.

Both the conference call and the webcast will begin at 1:00 p.m. MST. There are a limited number of spaces, available on a first come-first served basis.

Thank you.
